GERMANS WAKE UP IN FRANCE

3 German Bridgeheads South of River Wiped Out; Nazi Army Winded

PARIS, May 29.—The Allied rear-guard is fighting German troops in the streets of Lille as the war ministry spokesman said tonight, while the main northern forces withdraw toward the channel coast. The spokesman pictured the battle at Lille as a fierce delaying action to cover the withdrawal from the Flanders pocket. (The German high command had claimed that Lille had fallen.) The northern forces were said to be moving toward Dunkerque, some 50 miles from Lille, while this rear-guard action was being fought. Calais—claimed by the Germans—was said by the French tonight to be only partly occupied by the invaders. The war ministry spokesman declared that some French troops were holding out there.

expressed were extreme, violent and denunciatory and were aimed, apparently, in the breaking down of government."

Statements of the judge are inflammatory, continued the jurist. "They seek to inflame public sentiment in such a way as to only to discourage recruiting but to kill it. It preaches rebellion and incitement and cannot find it fair, just or more criticism of the government."

Judge Crawford quoted several passages from the leaflet and made the comment "where I read that it makes my blood boil."

He said he was facing a terrible emergency, fighting for our very existence, continued Judge Crawford. "I very much deplore that our very existence is being put in jeopardy. I am a soldier in the cause of the common people, and I recognize that if you were in Germany you would be shot or put in a concentration camp and tortured until you died."

HATER HITLER

MacPherson, speaking before the jury, said that the leaflet was written by a man named Hitler, and that all that Hitler stood for, and that he was more than willing to have built up Hitler and his ideas. "I am a soldier in the cause of the common people, and I recognize that if you were in Germany you would be shot or put in a concentration camp and tortured until you died."

Admission of publication of the pamphlet, "The People Want Peace," was made by Ronald J. MacPherson, counsel for MacPherson, and later in the case the accused was found guilty of having circulated the pamphlet to seven or eight persons well known in the city of Edmonton.

Giving evidence on his own behalf, MacPherson said that he was born at Stirling, Scotland, 35 years ago. He came to Canada in 1929 and worked for the Commercial Union in Alberta about six or seven years ago. He said he was now working for the Alberta branch, and admitted that it was his duty as secretary to distribute literature sent to him.

The crown will make appeal to a judge of the Supreme Court for an order declaring the Commercial Union Party illegal, it was announced by officials of the R.C.M.P. Wednesday.

The application follows reports by Judge Crawford in district court Wednesday morning to declare the party illegal. This application was made by crown counsel in the hearing of charges preferred against James MacPherson, Edmonton Commercial Union leader.

Harvard in the Tromsø region. It was authoritatively declared Tuesday. The last landing party, undertaken in an effort to win the front and relieve Allied pressure on Narvik, was completely successful.

The Germans made a similar unsuccessful attempt on the shores of Lingsfjord.

Allied officers reported that their force in this sector has been substantially bolstered by reinforcements of pursuit and bombing planes.

In the last three days, they said, at least 11 German planes, including three bombers, have been downed.

The German meanwhile persistently attempted to reinforce their beleaguered garrison. About 175 Nazi paratroopers—50 of them carrying arms, equipment and fuel supplies—dropped yesterday in the Gjerfjord region. Norwegian command troops were immediately dispatched to hunt them down.

Sixty German paratroopers, who landed at Balgoin, south of Narvik, were annihilated by Polish expeditionary troops.

TRUTH WORTH SOMETHING IF LIES COSTLY

LONDON, May 29.—Debate on Communist propaganda in the House of Commons tonight by Philip Noel-Baker, with a statement by the (Nazi) propaganda minister, Dr. Goebbels, was a battle between the two sides of the Atlantic (about $800,000) for selling lies, we could spare 1-10 of that sum for the truth.

Noel-Baker said that Britain was not a party to the war of the enemy's advantage in treachery and brutality.

"The king refused," he said he had made a last effort to convince the king, to get him to listen to the peace plan, but the king would not do so. He said he was not a party to the war of the enemy's advantage in treachery and brutality.

Dorothy Dix Says:

Among the most tragic letters that come to this column are those from the mothers of ungrateful children. They sob out the oldest and most pitiful story in the world over and over again. It is the story of a child who grows up and then turns back on his mother and says: "I am sorry I was ever born." It is a story that is repeated in one form or another in every household.

Or, there are mothers who write their children have been to see them and have husbands as well as children of their own, and that they are as abandoned in their own lives that they never even think of mother.

Some of these mothers say that their children have been to see them in years. Some of them write that their sons have even come to the trouble to drop them a letter.

About the only time the children remember mother is when they are out of the house and are some place where they can not without paying for it; or when they need a little money.

There isn't a day that I don't get one or more of these heart-rending letters. I might say my heart is broken, but I could not say that if I did not know that every mother who has brought up a child to be a man or woman has brought her marriage on her own head. For every grown man and woman that their mother exactly as she taught them to treat her.

Babies do not come into the world with an ethical code in their hands. They are born with a clean slate and it is up to the mother to write the code that will guide them. If she writes nothing, she will give her nothing.

Every mother who has adult sons and daughters left to show her respect and appreciation has written herself to blame. You have to teach them to be grateful for what you do for them, just as you have to teach them to be grateful for what you do for them.

When you finally make up your mind to go on a training program, you finally expect the worst. To lose your good disposition, to be hungry most of the time, to be stiff as a board from the fatigue of the day.

Well, you're expecting too much! You will be hungry—but only for the first few days. At first, you may imagine you are starving. But these are only the hunger pangs of a pampered appetite. After a few days you will find the appetite is gone. You will be hungry—but only for the first few days.

If you need something to tide you over before lunch, you can take a cup of a glass of skim milk in the mid-morning and a cup of coffee or hot tea in the afternoon.

START EASY
As for crisscrossing yourself with exercise, don't think! When you are not used to exercising, you should ease into your program. Exercise sets you up and you get the idea. There is no limit to what you can do. So you may as well go to it strenuously and for too long. You don't get any better from the first three days for your muscles to regularize the full effect of the exercise. It is the damage it does. It will be many a day before you exercise again—if ever!

BE ACCURATE
You should start with just five minutes' exercise daily for the first week. After that, increase the stint a minute or two each day until you are exercising for about 20 minutes. Make each movement slowly and accurately and be sure you are shaking the tension out of your muscles and relax completely. This helps to prevent cramps. Then follow with a warm bath. If you wish, you may use a hot water bottle in a great variety of spots.

But, above all, your reducing diet should not be a punishment. On a good reducing diet the proper elements—protein, carbohydrates, vitamins in the daily menu and cutting down on the high calorie fats and carbohydrates. You can just weight without affecting your disposition and the very reason is that you are not putting strain on your vitality.

Exercise deprivation is a fairly accurate gauge of your well being, and the diet that protects your disposition protects your health.

BALANCED SLIMMING MENU

Fruit Butters Hit Spot In Old-Fashioned Way

By MRS. GAYNOR MADDOX
You don't have to be an old-fashioned cook to make fruit butters. They are as modern as any other good food and with these brand-new recipes you will have 100% success.

SPICY RHUBARB BLACKBERRY BUTTER
(About 10 half-pint jars)
Your quart (4 1/2 lbs.) prepared rhubarb, 2 quarts (1 1/2 lbs.) prepared blackberries, 1 cup water, sugar, 3 sticks (4 1/2 lbs.) cinnamon, 1/2 tea-spoon whole cloves, 1/2 tea-spoon whole allspice, 1/2 tea-spoon salt. Wash about 6 lbs. rhubarb. Peel if not young and tender. Cut in 1/2 inch pieces. Pick over and wash about 2 1/2 quarts fully ripe blackberries. Drain and measure. Simmer rhubarb and berries in water until rhubarb is very tender, stirring occasionally. Run through fine sieve and measure. Add 1/2 cup sugar for each cup pulp, spices (see list) in cheesecloth ball and salt. Cook slowly until sugar is dissolved and mixture thick, stirring constantly. Boil rapidly until clear, stirring frequently to prevent burning. Remove spices. Pour into clean, sterilized jars, glass and seal at once.

The recipe will give a clear plum colored butter with excellent flavor. It may seem tedious to force rhubarb through a sieve but the results are worth the effort.

BLACKBERRY-APRICOT BUTTER
(About 8 half-pint jars)
Three-thirds cup (1 1/2 lbs.) dried apricots, 3 quarts (1 1/2 lbs.) prepared blackberries, 1/2 cup water, sugar, 1/2 cup whole cloves, 1/2 cup whole allspice, 1/2 cup salt. Stand about 15 minutes, then drain. Pick over and wash about 1 1/2 quarts fully ripe blackberries. Measure into kettle and cover. Add apricots and simmer, cover, about 25 minutes, stirring occasionally. Run through fine sieve and measure into large bowl. Add 1/2 cup sugar for each cup pulp, spices (see list) in cheesecloth ball and salt. Cook slowly until sugar is dissolved and mixture thick, stirring constantly. Boil rapidly until clear, stirring frequently to prevent burning. Remove spices. Pour into clean, sterilized jars, glass and seal at once.

Tomorrow's Menu
BREAKFAST: Stewed strawberries and rhubarb, rice griddle cakes, crisp bacon, blackberry-apricot butter, coffee, milk.
LUNCH: Boiled beef, apple sauce, frankfurters, rice, hard rolls, fruit cup, peanut cookies, tea, milk.
DINNER: Beef kidney stew, spoon bread, broiled tomatoes, lettuce and watercress salad, crisp cauliflower with whipped cream and strawberries, coffee, milk.

What To Do
Three perfect columns from the simple pattern. This principle-like style with its flatter raised waistline is ideal for all occasions and many types of figures. Choose a pretty printed cotton for a sweet afternoon frock accented with white collar and dainty ruffles. For home clothes, blue or green chambray looks cool and efficient when trimmed with a tiny lace framing collar. Then, for relaxing wear, the day's work is done, a housecoat of blue or green, with a wide, of gay printed cotton, will make you feel like a princess.

Minute Make-Ups
Don't let yourself look grim. Often a hard, tight lipstick line from corners sloping downward will give you this brilliant effect. Practice relaxing your mouth, and then lipstick it with corners slightly curved upward.

Evening Compact
Designed to carry compact essentials, small change and cigarettes, are over-sized evening case, of metal or enamel with unique decorations. The mid-size evening case, for powder, dry and paste rouge, lipstick and change purse and is separated from the cigarette compartment by a metal leaf that acts as a mirror.

THERE IS NO BLOOD IN THE BRAIN
When people talk about blood rushing to their brains, they are wrong. According to Dr. J. G. Goldstein, M.D., who says any medical doctor knows that there is no blood actually in the brain at any time. Blood does not come into direct contact with the brain at all. An elaborate network of filters and channels draws off the cerebral spinal fluid from the blood, and it is this fluid that circulates through the brain, as well as the spinal cord. This is a cerebral fluid always present in the blood.

DESIGN NO. X444—COLLAR AND JACKET
Here is a pretty little thing that is a combination of collar and jacket. Crocheted in one piece, it is one of the new accessories for Spring. Pattern No. X444 contains list of materials needed and complete instructions.

To order this pattern, write your name and address on a piece of paper and send with 15 cents in coin to Needlework Department, The Edmonton Bulletin, Edmonton, Alberta.

Please allow a week or ten days for delivery.

Bulletin Patterns

McKenney On Bridge
From Augusta, Ga., I drove to Asheville, N.C., where I discussed with Sam D. Holl and the Chamber of Commerce the Southern APB. The stars are planned to be held at the Battery Park hotel in Asheville, Aug. 25-28. These dates are right after the state tournament at Asheville Park, and several of the stars are planning to play with intentions designed to clear up some of the confusion.

I shall be happy to send you the booklet called "What Mothers Should Know About Babies" for a self-addressed envelope with your letter to Mrs. Edred of the Your Baby and Mine department in care of The Edmonton Bulletin.

PROTHY SUMMER DRAPERIES
These textures in draperies make for cool-looking rooms in hot days. For a bedroom in frosty white, use of matching lace net, simply tailored with full wide curtains of the same material. At the window, a nice effect is obtained by using two pairs of matching curtains at the window—down—over covering the entire window and falling just to the sill, the deep V with simple tie-backs.

"Tactum" is an Indian word meaning "highest" or "near heaven."

Your Baby And Mine

By MYRTLE MEYER ELDRED
A great many babies tend to develop the ugly, itchy-smelling crust on top of the head known as "cradle-caps." It results, chiefly, from the baby's skin being too dry, which makes it scaly and itchy. It is not a serious condition, but it is annoying to both mother and baby. It can be easily treated with a mild, warm water wash. Rub the scalp with a soft, warm towel. Then rub a little baby oil into the crown of the head and wipe off any surplus. If it does not clear up every time the head is washed it will be surprising if any scale gathered there.

If the scale has already formed some more drastic cleaning methods may be needed. It has been found successful to use some slightly abrasive powder such as borax or borate acid powder on a damp cloth. Rub over the top of the scalp. Rinse dry and oil well. Keep up this treatment until the scale is loose enough to fall off when washed. Keep using the borax or borate acid powder as often as necessary. It is clean.

Sometimes an uncleaned food crust, usually about the size of a pea, will collect in the hair on the forehead or the back of the neck. This is really a form of eczema. While it may clear up spontaneously it is impossible for there to be a real cure until the dirt is dislodged to this particular spot. When the skin over the crust is removed it is a condition more nearly related to eczema than the crust is to washing. The diet, then, needs expert attention. The crust will be gone with intentions designed to clear up some of the confusion.

I shall be happy to send you the booklet called "What Mothers Should Know About Babies" for a self-addressed envelope with your letter to Mrs. Edred of the Your Baby and Mine department in care of The Edmonton Bulletin.

Headquarters Staff of First Division Is Working Hard To Perfect Machine

By EDWIN R. JOHNSON
Canadian Press Staff Writer

ALBANY, N.Y., May 28.—Ever since the Canadian Active Service Corps (C.A.S.C.) was organized, the headquarters staff of the 1st Division has been working hard to perfect a machine which will stand up to any challenge.

Responsible among other tasks for seeing that the machine is perfect, the headquarters staff of the 1st Division has been working hard to perfect a machine which will stand up to any challenge.

1940 BUDGET IS EXPECTED IN TWO WEEKS

Many Heavy New Taxes Looked For To Meet War Emergency

OTTAWA, May 28.—The federal budget probably will be brought down in the commonwealth within the next two weeks, according to a source in the finance ministry, who said that the government will be anxious to pay for the cost of the Dominion's war emergency program.

Authorized sources in the finance ministry said that the annual report on the country's financial position will not be given to parliament until the budget is submitted to be made known. It is expected that the budget will provide for many heavy new taxes, particularly on luxuries, to meet the war emergency.

MUST BORROW SOME
The estimates for the current fiscal year already have been prepared, and the government is expected to borrow some $700,000,000 to be appropriated.

The government will be taxed to the limit of its resources. The rest must be borrowed.

The special war session last September was called to legislate for the war emergency. The government announced that a "pay-day" would be held for the war emergency, followed as far as possible by a "pay-day" for the war emergency.

Changes in both economic and war situations probably will lead to new changes in methods adopted by the government as compared with the early first Great War.

DIFFERENT IN 1914-15
Financial requirements for the Dominion for the fiscal year 1914-15 were met in various ways. The customs duties on coffee, liquor, and tobacco were raised. Special excise taxes were imposed on liquor and tobacco.

Arrangements were made with the imperial government to finance the Canadian war effort. In 1914-15 almost the entire war effort was financed from that source. Capital expenditures were met by the sale of government bonds.

Early in 1915, the first special war session was called. The government was placed on bank note circulation, on the government's part, and the income of the insurance companies on the part of the insurance companies.

Postage rates were increased and stamp taxes placed on tobacco and alcohol. The government also imposed on patent medicines, perfume and non-parking vehicles.

EXTRA IMPORT LEVIES
An additional 7 1/2 per cent was levied on imports under the general and intermediate tariff schedule. These levies were placed on items under the tariff preference.

These taxation increases, expected to yield about $25,000,000, went into a small way toward meeting the government's financial needs of $400,000,000 during the fiscal year 1915-16.

The arrangement with the imperial government broke down in the summer of 1915 when sterling exchange went to a large discount. Meanwhile Great Britain was unable to finance Canadian war expenditures made overseas.

A loan of $45,000,000 was obtained in New York in July, 1915, and for the remainder of the war period, the government was obliged to turn to the Canadian investor.

After 1915 Canada's war effort rapidly increased, and the growing burden had more and more to be supported by Canada's own resources.

The regular budget of 1939 was for $400,000,000. The regular budget before the first war was for $100,000,000. In those thirty days Canadians paid no sales tax which was broadened last September and now covers the entire country. The sales tax was increased last fall. In addition, the excise tax on liquor was increased. The excise tax on alcohol was increased three per cent to 18 per cent and the individual income tax was increased by 20 per cent of the taxes due.

Government Sells $65,000,000 Bond Issue On Tuesday
OTTAWA, May 28.—Finance Minister R. L. Brannan today announced that the sale of the $65,000,000 four-year bond issue will be made March 1, 1941.

The sale price is $93 3/4 per cent and accrued interest and the cost to the government is 2 1/2 per cent. The bonds will be sold at 100 per cent and will mature March 1, 1945. The interest and principal will be paid in Canadian dollars.

Proceeds from the sale of this issue, together with cash from the Dominion treasury, will be used in the redemption on June 1, 1940, of $400,000,000 four-year issue. The new issue takes the same form as issued in March 1 to the amount of $400,000,000.

Hillbilly At College Brings Feud And An Eye For A Gal'

By Harry Harrison Kroll
CHAPTER I

ROSSY MCAFEE laid his bag of baseball bats and ancient telescope grip on the ground and gawped at the wrought-iron arch which ran between the stone gate posts. The iron letters, "Lincoln College," were two feet high.

Rossy stared hungrily at the bronze figure of the Red Spitter in the drive oval. He had had two ambitions in his scanty soul—one, to make the big time as a ball player; the other, to find the man who had killed his father and exact an eye for an eye.

Now he was overwhelmed with a third, to become an educated man. Standing there, a Lincolnian figure himself, he seemed to be stepping across the threshold of a new life. The campus seemed distant. He had expected to see hundreds, maybe thousands, of gay students chasing nither and you. Instead all the life he found was a professor's nose chewing some dead grass.

"Well, I do declare!" Rossy muttered, "Any I at the right place?" He had come at the opening of the spring quarter because he had not yet his play sold and was still waiting for the fall. But there was that thing, Lincoln College. This must be the right place, but there was something wrong with the time.

He heard a chattering, clattering roar behind him, faintly at first, then increasingly louder. Before he could collect his wits, it was upon him. He whirled around, his eyes wide, speeding along the sidewalk toward him. The noise came from wheels on feet. She must have been going 200 miles an hour.

The girl yelled, tried to turn back, failed on concrete. Rossy jumped this way and that trying to decide which way the girl was Rossy jumped this way and that, trying to decide where she was going to hit. . . In another instant they were all piled up—legs, skates, arms, and grip. Rossy was yelling.

SUBVERSIVE STATEMENTS ARE CHARGED

Polish-Born German Arrested For Remarks
Voiced Last October

Hearing of charges laid under the Defence of Canada Regulations against David Pick, Polish-born German was adjourned right away by Magistrate Jackson in police court Wednesday.

Pick, first Edmonton resident to stand trial under the section of the regulations dealing with oral statements likely to "cause disaffection among His Majesty's forces," was charged as a result of statements allegedly made in the Alberta Post-room in October of last year.

ARREST NOT MADE
Application for arrest was made by the court at adjournment time Tuesday. Defence Counsel L. Petrasick, contending that an amendment to the regulations effective January 1, 1940, rendered charges pertaining to statements made previous to that date null and void. Counsel for Pick further urged that accused had not in any case committed a breach of the regulations on the evidence submitted.

Remarks discrediting the government of Poland and warning as to what would happen if Hitler "came to power" were the basis of the charge against Pick, according to evidence. One crown witness, who has been formed as a witness, testified he had warned Pick to be careful as to what he said and accused is said to have replied "Canada is a free country. I can say what I want."

"TALKED TOO MUCH"
Capt. Lapointe, R.C.M.P., said that accused had admitted to him he was not to be in the Allan poolroom and to neighbors.

Arrest was made on May 19 and the allegedly subversive statements were made in October of 1939.

AROUND THE TOWN

A special general meeting of the Federation of Community Leagues has been called for Thursday, May 20, at 8 p.m. in the Civic block.

Business of vital interest to all leagues will be discussed and all delegates are requested to attend.

Charged with the theft of 19 silver for pellets valued at $400, the property of the Club Nationale de Bonnet Argent, Monville, William Collinson, Edmonton, went on trial in supreme court Wednesday before Judge Justice T. M. Tweedie. The hearing is proceeding.

W. C. Owens, of Winnipeg, general superintendent of transportation for C.N.R. western lines, arrived in the city Tuesday night and left early Wednesday for southern Alberta on a tour of inspection. J. H. McKinnon, general superintendent of the Alberta district, accompanied him.

Members of the various railroad unions centered in Edmonton, together with the Ladies' Auxiliary, will attend the annual memorial services of the unions in First Baptist church, 102 street and 100 avenue, on Sunday, June 8, at 7:30 p.m.

Brick bidding featured the auction sale of 25 calves put on auction block at North Edmonton stockyards by members of the North Edmonton and St. Line Baby Beef clubs. Prices realized were well above current market prices. Earl Layton was the auctioneer.

Resident of Edmonton for the last 35 years, and a native of Calhoun, Scot., Mrs. Annie Grant, wife of Robert Grant of 1902 112 street, died at her home Tuesday morning, aged 88. She is survived by her husband, one daughter, Mrs. Robert T. Anderson of Edmonton, and two sons, John S. of Edmonton, and Gerald Friday at 2:30 p.m. from Andrew's funeral chapel, with Rev. William Simon officiating. Interment will take place in the Edmonton cemetery.

Looking Them Over

By Jack Kelly
Dickey Done?
Park Opener
Promising Card

TAPS were being sounded for Bill Dickey of the New York Yankees by more than one astute major league baseball critic a week or ten days ago as the world champions floundered down near the bottom of the American League standings. Big Bill's batting average was something like .330 and for the Yanks' top catcher that is about the same as Joe Loeu being unable to break a window pane with his best punch.

All sorts of reasons were advanced for this lamentable performance. One teaching angle brought forward was the possibility that Arkanvaw Bill just couldn't get going as a result of Lou Gehrig being forced to drop out of the Yankee lineup. Dickey and Gehrig had been the closest of buddies for years and Bill had always followed Lou in the batting lineup. Lou depended on his buddy to bat him around the bases and Dickey generally came through.

Another angle offered by the experts was that fat bank rolls in the possession of practically every Yankee player had robbed them of the urge to hustle. It didn't know that no ball player can ever get so much money that he is not interested in more. I might give some credence to such an angle.

The experts got so riled up about the decline of Bill Dickey's batting average that they had a replacement picked out for him—at least so far as the batting order is concerned. The left-handed catcher that the boys figured would put power back in the Yankees is Ken Sears who is batting a mere .400 for the New York Bears of the International. In two years of pro ball, he has an average of .350, pointed out over 50 homers and driven in some 200 runs in as many games. This pounding youngster is the son of "Ziggy" Sears, who umpires in the National League.

However there has been a sudden absence of helpful hints for Manager Joe McCarthy during recent days as the Yankees started going up the league standings like a skyrocket. The Ruppert Brits may not finish with the league pennant this year, but I have a hunch they will be in the home stretch for it . . . with Bill Dickey supplying plenty of punch. It takes a little time for veteran champions to get warmed up.

Softball Park Opens Tonight

TONIGHT the Edmonton Softball Association will formally open its new park on Kingsway, just west of 101 street—provided the weather is O.K. L. Col. R. Brown, M.M., catching the first ball pitched by Mayor Fry and Alderman Hugh John Macdonald taking a crack at the pitch from the battery box.

If his Worship puts one down the field, Hugh John is likely to steal the spotlight with a homer, for not so long ago the alderman was a right capable ball player.

The opening ceremony starts at 7:00 p.m. Centrals will oppose Roadies in a Men's Senior League fixture as the main event. Completely fenced in, equipped with bleachers, a loud speaker system and so on, the new park gives softball fans something new in Edmonton. The association has hurdled some mighty tough problems in achieving this long-dreamed-of objective and deserves plenty of credit.

From now on there will be a game every night in this park. The Senior Men's League plays on Mondays, Wednesdays, Saturdays and Sundays. The Senior Girls' League will stage games on Tuesdays and Fridays. The Junior Men's League will play on Thursdays and Sundays.

With lights opening, softball officially moves off vacant lots of Edmonton and makes a respectable bid for the patronage of the city's sport fans.

Chapman Workout Is Impressive

LAST night Jimmy Chapman, who battles Stan Hugo of Los Angeles, held Friday night, staged a public workout at the Memorial Hall that impressed a good-sized crowd of fans. Chapman was handicapped by lack of sparring partners going to the star of good little men in these parts. He stepped hard and fast with Barney O'Connor, however, but Barney couldn't keep up the pace for more than a round.

Stan Hugo is slated to show his stuff in another public workout tonight at 7:30 in the Memorial Hall. Promoter Mike Cuthbert is sending out an A.O.C. for any boxer in the 120-pound range who will act as a sparring partner for a few rounds.

In addition to the 10-round main event between Chapman and Hugo, Friday's card includes Mike McGuire vs. Dave Winkler for six rounds, Harvey Brier vs. Jimmy Rimmer for six rounds.

It's a fight card that promises the sort of up-close action the fistful faithful crave.

EDMONTON NET ASSOCIATION IS REORGANIZED

The Edmonton Tennis Association met last night and organized for another fine season of tennis. Officers were chosen for the coming season and Lloyd F. Taylor was elected to the presidency. Walter W. Wiers was named treasurer, while Mrs. K. Banerman was made secretary.

It was also decided that the Edmonton Tennis tournament will be held from July 5 to the 13th. The Bill Stark on the sidelines in the junior championship. Of the junior talent rising into senior calibre John Storr, Jack a promising young man, and the Hudson's Bay tennis committee of E. Trudel and C. Almes. The ladies' event for the Northern Hardcourt trophy will be headed by Mrs. K. Banerman, with Mrs. C. Taylor and Miss Helen Stewart assisting.

Andrew "Shorty" Purcell was named chairman of the city tournament committee. This committee will meet on June 3 at 8 p.m. in the Glenora club rooms.

SHANKING

Shanking—the disease of the expert as well as the dub—shaking the ball with the head or neck (that part of the head into which the shaft is fitted).

There are several causes of shanking and if it hits you it may be cured by trial and elimination. The most common fault is moving your head; try holding it absolutely still. If that fails, can you make by standing too close, or perhaps too far away or using too flat a back swing. Try a terrible dilemma, but stopping any one of the above may cure it.

His resignation as head of the junior tennis committee but in his letter of resignation he offered many good ideas for the junior tournament. There will be two junior tournaments to precede the senior event. The junior committee was elected and will be composed of E. Storr, chairman, J. McDonald and Steve Purcell.

Women should always precede their escorts along a tree-lined

By JACK DEARIN

MANAGER-CATCHER LAUREL HARNEY selected and "worked" Arrow relief pitching often and smartly in the last three innings of last night's Central Alberta Baseball League game at Renfrew Park. Thus the Arrows preserved a 4-1 triumph against their intensely rival, the Dodgers. And by virtue of the win the Arrowmen vaulted from last place to second berth, tied with Ponoka Stampede.

Throughout, however, the Arrows proved the better team. They belted Duke Barker off for four runs and six hits in the first four innings for a 4-1 lead. They had the extra batting punch to come through in the seventh frame for winning runs after Dodgers had tied the score in a two-hit, three-run rally in the first half of the seventh.

GREEN TOP BATTER George Green of the Dodgers led the hitting parade with a double and two singles in five true strokes. He was the first to get on base with two hits while Dolphin, Brockie and Luppul followed in order for Arrows with two hits each.

Boss Harney again paraded three batters in the mound. "Lefty" Beller was the starting ace. He gave off four runs and five hits in six innings, pitched three, being driven in the eighth and ninth. He was the first to get on base in the seventh as Dodgers rallied for three runs. Ken McKeay was a 1-0 pitcher in the first four innings, gave away one hit which brought a runner in the second inning, but he was out of the game on base by Beller. And because McKeay filled the breach for the time he earned winning pitcher honors.

McKeay gave way to Billy Luppul in the eighth and the latter again allowed a Dodger uprising and went on to finish the game.

DOGGERS NEED TWO Dodgers needed the services of two moundmen. Duke Barker won his opening engagement against Arrows, faltered early in the game as a heavy Arrow offensive drove him to the showers.

Arrows clinched the game in the third half of the fourth, three hits in the second and another in the third. Baser was relieved by Brockie, who pitched a doublet in right field.

Tommy Barr relieved Barker in the last half of the fourth. Brockie hurtled two hits from the mound in the seventh as the Arrows led-off with a single to first base and many hits.

Three consecutive singles by Mac Keay, Dave Brockie, and Fred Luppul started the second inning. Brockie grounded into a doublet, Luppul and Brockie scored, the first on Luppul's hit and the second on a fly ball to center field. An error by Tommy Barr put the Arrows in the lead. Brockie, Fred Luppul singled to start the fourth frame and Omeasta timely double brought him in. Brockie went home on a single by Arrow. Arrows led by a 4-1 score. Dodgers gained their only run when Brockie first on Jack McKeay's error.

BELLER WEAKENS The seventh ace Beller weakened and he gave two free passes to first. A screaming single by George Green brought Brockie and Omeasta in. Brockie hit a double and a wild pitch scored Goyan to bring the score to 4-2. McKeay took the hill and allowed a single which scored Green who was marked on the base by Brockie.

McKeay tried to start the Arrows on the victory march but two errors, one each by Brockie and Omeasta, followed up by Dolphin's double play blow to right which ended the march for Arrows with a 4-4 tie.

Billy Luppul finished the hitting for Arrows and performed the rally by mowing down the last five batters in the seventh.

Fitzsimmons Twirls Steady Game As Dodgers Win To Strengthen Lead

BROOKLYN, N.Y., May 29.—The Dodgers reinforced their claim in the National League last night by whipping Philadelphia Phillies 4-2 on the six-hit pitching of Freddy Fitzsimmons, who has won four without a defeat. Seven errors marred the game for the crowd of 28,615.

The 36-year-old knuckleball specialist, Brooklyn's first star, was in the sixth when he pitched his two runs with the help of a single by Art Mahan, a double by Joe Mauer and a single by Chuck Klein. The victory was Brooklyn's fifth in a row and gave the Dodgers a half game lead over Cincinnati Reds. Philadelphia . . . 000 000—4 4 Brooklyn . . . 000 000—2 4 Mauer, Brown and Alwood; Fitzsimmons and Philia.

By HENRY McLEMORE British United Press, Exclusive to Edmonton Bulletin NEW YORK, May 29.—With some 22,260 other baseball moths I was drawn to the flame at the Polo Grounds when the Giants and the Bees played the first night game in the history of the island of Manhattan.

The place was so bright the ushers were setting freestyle cream by the dash lining, and our man who failed in the ushers was treated for sunburn. The commissioner, if they're smart, will add pill helmets, sun tan oil and dark glasses to their wares to help the customers' protect themselves from the 200,000-amp candle-power lights.

When the game was over, the fans staggered out into the streets and the well-lit New York streets, many of them wandered off with their wives to help the customers' protect themselves from the 200,000-amp candle-power lights.

PONOKA MEET HONORS TAKEN BY ARBOR PARK

PONOKA, May 29.—Arbor Park school, under the leadership of teacher G. Hoggston, was successful in winning the grand aggregate at the Ponoka Empire Day track meet. About 65 rural schools of the district were in the first division. Twelve beautiful silver cups, donated by local business firms, were presented as trophies.

It was a great day for the children, the boys' badge hand under the direction of Fred Harris, led a parade from the centre of town to the fair grounds. In this many fine floats were entered principally from rural areas. First and second prizes were awarded to Pleasant Hill and Arbor Park schools.

Among breaches charged by the commission were payments to amateur players and a player under suspension. Five of the officials were suspended six days and the others from one to three years. The club, at present operating in the midland women's regional group, was fined 100 ($2,235).
